

Attic Self Storage The Beauty of Beckton Charity Initiative Terms & Conditions 26th April 2022

The promoter is Loft Management Services (company no. 11921179) operating as Attic Self Storage Limited (company no. 5999141) whose registered offices are at 3rd Floor, 72 Borough High Street, London, SE1 1XF.

The charity initiative invites primary school aged children to draw a picture depicting the "Beauty of Beckton" which represents what they like most about the community and area of Beckton. For every image received, Attic will donate £5 to the Richard House Children's Hospice (capped at £2,000 in total). The artworks will be used by local artist, Matt Ponting, to create a bespoke piece of artwork which will be displayed alongside some selected drawings at an exhibition at Attic Self Storage's new facility in Beckton upon launch in Summer 2022. The school with the most entries will also be awarded £500 worth of art materials. Following the exhibition, the artwork created by Matt Ponting will be donated to the Richard House Children's Hospice who will either auction or display this for their own benefit.

To take part, children must create an A4-sized drawing depicting the thing that they most like about their local area. Entries can be uploaded directly to the Attic website in the form of a jpeg or pdf image along with a brief description of the subject of the picture, child's name, age, school name, and parent's or school's email address. Submissions can also be posted directly to Attic Self Storage, 3rd Floor, 72 Borough High Street, London, SE1 1XF accompanied by the same information.

Only one submission can be accepted per child.

There is no entry fee.

Submissions involving indecent or discriminatory language will be excluded.

The closing date for submissions will be 23:59 on Sunday the 19th of June 2022. After this date entries will no longer count towards the total school submission but may still be used as part of the exhibition.

No responsibility can be accepted for submissions not received for whatever reason.

The rules of the charity initiative and how to enter are as follows:

1. Entrants must create an A4 drawing of their favourite thing about Beckton and upload this with the accompanying information (name, age, school name, and parent's or schools email address) including a brief description of the subject of the drawing at <https://www.atticstorage.co.uk/blog/beauty-of-beckton-submit-your-artworks-here>
2. The promoter reserves the right to cancel or amend the charity initiative and these terms and conditions without notice in the event of a catastrophe, war, civil

Commented [SA1]: Need to add a point that posted submissions will not be given back to entrants to entrants. Also, think we need a note in there that entrants may be contacted for PR purposes or military disturbance, act of God, or any actual or anticipated breach of any applicable law or regulation or any other event outside of the promoter's control.

3. Any changes to the donation to Richard House Children's Hospice or award to the school will be notified to entrants as soon as possible by the promoter.
4. The promoter is not responsible for inaccurate prize details supplied to any entrant by any third party connected with this competition.
5. The charity initiative is open to children up to and including year 6 of school – those born after the 31st of August 2010.
6. The school with the greatest number of eligible entries will be awarded £500 worth of art materials for use at school. The promoter reserves the right to substitute the prize for an alternative with similar value at their discretion.
7. The prize is as stated and no other alternatives will be offered. The prize is not transferable. Prizes are subject to availability, and we reserve the right to substitute any prize with another of equivalent value without giving notice.
8. The winning school will be notified via email within 28 days of the closing date. If the winning school cannot be contacted or does not claim the award within 14 days of notification, we reserve the right to withdraw the prize from the winner and pick a replacement winner which will be the school with the next highest number of eligible entries.
9. The promoter will notify the winning school when and where the prize can be collected/is delivered.
10. The promoter's decision in respect of all matters to do with the charity initiative will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
11. By entering this charity initiative, an entrant is indicating his/her agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
12. By entering this charity initiative, an entrant is indicating his/her agreement to be contacted for PR purposes.
13. Once submitted, regretfully we will not be able to return hard copies of entries.
14. By submitting an entry, the submitter agrees to the publication of the artwork submitted, the inclusion of a print in the exhibition, and its use to inspire the artwork created by Matt Ponting.

15. Submission of a drawing is not a guarantee that the drawing will be featured in the exhibition or used to inspire the artwork created by Matt Ponting.
16. These terms and conditions will be governed by English law and any disputes will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England & Wales.
17. Any personal data relating to the winner or any other entrants will be used solely in accordance with current UK data protection legislation and will not be disclosed to a third party without the entrant's prior consent.
18. The winning school's name will be available 28 days after the closing date by emailing the following address: information@atticstorage.co.uk stating "Request for winner details" in the Subject line.
19. The information provided will be used in conjunction with the following Privacy Policy found at <https://www.atticstorage.co.uk/privacy-policy>